HEALTH THROUGH SINGING

Christiaan Boele

The School of Uncovering the Voice, aka Werbeck Method
In Werbeck, singing is viewed holistically, with the aim of the natural opening and balancing of the voice. The singer is invited to move with confidence and joy towards discovering his or her own voice. It is a gentle process and the voice is never pushed, but liberated slowly through engagement and active participation.

CHRISTIAAN BOELE:

has worked 40 years in the School of Uncovering the Voice tradition. His refined, intuitive teaching methods lead students at all levels to new discoveries about their voices, and about themselves.

ANTHROPOSOPHIC PSYCHOLOGY

David Taulbee Anderson

#7. March 14: "Franz Brentano and Aristotle's Doctrine of the Spirit." The Church forbade the idea that we have a spirit at the 8th Ecumenical Council. This has crippled western Pneumatosophy up until now. When we move from emotions to Will we approach spirit. Aristotle didn't accept reincarnation but did teach of immortality that looked painfully back on one imperfect life as its only material for spiritual growth in eternity. Next dates: Apr 18, May 16, June 13. Come to any lecture, you do not have to attend the entire series!

DAVID TAULBEE ANDERSON: HAS TAUGHT DRAWING & painting around the world. He has an MA in Art and certificates from Emerson College (Waldorf education), and the Wagner School at the Goetheanum (teaching painting).

“WHY IS THIS NIGHT DIFFERENT?”

Bella Freuman

In this talk, Bella Freuman shows how Christ transformed Old Testament law. The Passover Seder table and its rituals enact the playing out of the prophecy from cleaning the house, the glass of wine reserved for Elijah, the drinking of four cups of wine and the special preparation of the unleavened bread, to the first three Seder rituals: the blessing of the wine (“This is my blood”), the blessing of the bread (“this is my body”) and the washing of hands—which becomes “washing of the feet” at the Last Supper (“love one another”).

BELLA FREUMAN: LIVED IN ISRAEL, GERMANY AND USA; a student of anthroposophy for 28 years living now in the Rudolf Steiner Fellowship Community, Spring Valley NY.

Eugene Schwartz

Eugene continues his look at anthroposophy and Mormonism. Although many of the same spiritual beings are to be found in the teachings of mainstream Christianity, Mormonism, and anthroposophy, we gain often opposing perspectives of these beings through Joseph Smith's revelatory theology and Rudolf Steiner's Cosmic Christianity. The theology of the modern LDS church is a compendium of the revelations and teachings of Smith and the many Prophets who succeeded him as church leaders. Anthroposophy, on the other hand, has changed remarkably little nearly a century after Steiner's death. We will examine aspects of Smith's and Steiner's teachings about the Christ, the role of spiritual beings in human life, the evolution of humanity, and the dual nature of time. Final lecture: May 19.

EUGENE SCHWARTZ: TAUGHT FOR MANY YEARS AT Green Meadow Waldorf School and directed the Teacher Training Program at the Sunbridge Institute. He lectures internationally on anthroposophy and Waldorf education and has pioneered numerous online presentations. His lectures and articles may be found at millennialchild.com.
